FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SEATTLE, Jan. 21, 2012 — National Title I Conference — Lesson Planet, an innovative online search solution for PreK-12 educators, will showcase new features of its School Edition, a cost-effective and easy-to-administer site license, at this week's National Title I Conference. The company provides teachers with a convenient way to search 400,000+ teacher-reviewed open educational resources that can be targeted by subject, grade, standards, and more.

With Lesson Planet School Edition's time-saving features, administrators can give teachers quick access to a variety of resources for supplementing curriculum and differentiating instruction. Administrators can use School Edition's management tools to easily add teachers to an account and view reports of how their staff uses Lesson Planet. In addition, the site license offers Specialized Learning Resource Directories, which meet categorical funding requirements. These directories address categorical areas through a wide range of resources grouped by a particular need, such as Special Education, English Language Learners, and STEM. Lesson Planet enhances standards-based instruction with quick access to a database of state and Common Core standards. Educators can also search by topic or standard to find standards-correlated lessons.

"I am excited that Lesson Planet's new Specialized Learning Resource Directories will allow teachers to save even more time as they search for resources they can trust," said Jim Hurley, Lesson Planet CEO & Founder. "After over 10 years of providing teachers with a reliable online curriculum search solution, I am confident that the Specialized Learning Resource Directories will be an asset to administrators and teachers looking to quickly find resources focused in specific areas."

Lesson Planet representatives will show all of these new features and show administrators how the School Edition can benefit their school at booth #633 at the National Title I Conference. Teachers and administrators who receive a demonstration may enter to win an iPad2 or a one-year Lesson Planet
